Client-Side Features

This section presents all APIs and features that are specific to client applications.

Server-specific features are presented in Server-Side Features, while transverse features best understood while considering both sides of a client-server interaction are described in Client-Server Features.

Topics

* Proxies
* Request Contexts
* Invocation Timeouts
* Automatic Retries
* Oneway Invocations
* Datagram Invocations
* Batched Invocations